Our Military Are The Gatekeepers

May you all have a wonderful New Year that will show you new and meaningful beginnings! To all of those fellow Americans I would like to ask that you extend a Hearty thank you to those men and women, our protectors!

Our family, friends, and strangers sign up to be those "Angels of Democracy", which we will always be grateful for that American Spirit that is righteous in their promise to protect and serve!

I would like to say even more clear, than I humanly can, that we love you, stand by you, and are very grateful to all our veterans, and those still serving for our strong FREEDOMS, that we enjoy.

What We Do Every Day Case Stories

A veteran had been staying with relatives but came to a point where he was told he had to leave. The problems that veterans experience because of their service are deep rooted and varied and can take control of their entire existence. This veteran was completely homeless, again.

Veterans' Outreach was able to secure him food, shelter, and help from other veteran friendly agencies to help him gain permanent housing. Finally, this veteran is on a path to healing and living in a healthy environment with a fresh start.

A veteran woke up one morning aware that his home was very cold. He slowly began to move about and realized that his electricity had been shut off. He struggles to make ends meet, especially since Covid has changed his circumstances. He tried to get help from several agencies, but none could help him right away. They referred him to

Veterans' Outreach, we made a pledge, and got his power restored immediately, while he sat in our office.

Kentucky Heroes' Passage Veterans Retreat

Veterans' Outreach was donated 110 acres of Kentucky wilderness. Plans are underway to develop Heroes' Passage a retreat for veterans that are having problems with transitioning to civilian life.

A Moment In History

Veterans & Farming

(Born January 15, 1929 – Died April 4, 1968) was an American Baptist minister and activist who became the most visible spokesman and leader in the American civil rights movement from 1955 until his assassination in 1968. King advanced civil rights through nonviolence and civil disobedience, inspired by his Christian beliefs and the nonviolent activism of Mahatma Gandhi. He was the son of early civil rights activist and minister Martin Luther King Sr.

King participated in and led marches for blacks' right to vote, desegregation, labor rights, and other basic civil rights. King helped organize the 1963 March on Washington, where he delivered his "I Have a Dream" speech on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial.

Veterans have opportunity to grow with USDA and farming resources

Few pairings more closely align than Veterans and farming. The skill sets developed in military service match many of the characteristics of a successful agricultural professional. Whether it's a sense of duty, responsibility and accountability for completing the mission, or being organized and disciplined, Veterans typically transition naturally into farming, ranching, and other agricultural opportunities.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture knows what Veterans bring to the table: a strict adherence to rules and schedules, the ability to problem solve quickly and creatively, and strong work ethic. In return, USDA is committed to assisting Veterans across the country to keep America's food supply safe and secure.
